Monday, November 4. 1723.

don, November 4.
Yesterday arrived the Mails from Holland, France and Flanders.

Madrid, October 26.

YESTERDAY being the Anniversary of the Queen's Birth, her Majesty then entering into the 32d Year of her Age, the same was magnificently celebrated at the Palace of St. on which Occasion the Infante Don Carlos fine Firework to be played off, which this City had prepared before the Palace of the Escorial. from Lisbon relate, that the Count de Rebeira, Portuguese late Ambassador at the Court of France, died on the 3d Instant, in the 39th. Year of his Age. We have Advice from Cadiz that the Marquis Arari with his Squadron is come in there; and in his Cruise in the Mediterranean he spoke with Men of War carrying the Emperour's Colours, which had under their Convoy three Merchant Ships from Trieste in the Adriatick, bound for Lisbon.

Gehre, Nov. 2. Credentials are sent from hence to Mr. Horatio Walpole at the Court of France, to act as his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary during his Stay there. Most of the Foreign Ministers who were at Hanover, are come hither to pay their Court to his Majesty: viz. The Marquess de Pozzobuono Ambassador Extraordinary from the King of Spain, M. Chavigny Minister from the most Christian King, M. Wallenrodt Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia, M. Lewenohr Minister from the King of Denmark, M. Pesters Minister from the States-General, the Marquess de Cortanze Minister from the King of Sardinia, and M. de Marquietti, Minister from the Duke of Parma. The King of Prussia is expected here by the 4th Instant.

Hamburg, Nov. 3. Advices from Petersbourg relate, that M. de Campredon, the French Minister there, has received two Expresses from the Marquess de Bonac, his most Christian Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople; upon which, the former had a Conference with the Muscovite Ministers M. Tolstoy and Osterman, and represented to them the pernicious Consequences of a Rupture with the Ottoman Porte: 'Tis said however, that the Czar is not at all disposed to part with any of his new Acquisitions in Persia in Order to preserve his Peace with the Turks. Letters have been received at Warsaw from Constantinople, which give an Account, that the Usurper Miri-Ways has brought over the principal Ministers of the Ottoman Porte to his Side, and that the Likelihood of a War between the Turks and Muscovites encreases daily. They write from Stockholm, that notwithstanding the Opposition of the Clergy, the States of the Kingdom have resolved to grant to the Reformed the free Exercise of their Religion in their Houses; that M. Bestuchef, the Russian Minister, had a Conference with those of Sweden, and delivered to them a Project of an Alliance between the two Nations, which, 'tis said, was sent to the Secret Committee of the Dyet to be examined. Advices from Copenhagen relate, that the Danish Court is resolved to have 40 Men of War ready to put to Sea against the next Summer. Letters from Prague give an Account, that the Prussian Minister the Count de Tschiles, was arrived there on the 23d inst; that he had an Audience on the 24th of the Emperour, and on the 25th of the Empress. Those Letters confirm the Advices of the Re-establishment of good Friendship between the two Courts.

Paris, Nov. 10. On the 4th Instant the King began, for the first time, to ride the Great Horse at the Academy. On the 9th at Night the Duke d'Aumont died at Versailles of the Small Pox, in the 30th Year of his Age. This Duke's Father, his Mother, his Wife, and himself, are all dead within these six months. The King has granted to the present young Duke the Survivorship of the Office of first Gentleman of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber. Further Advices are daily received of the great Damage done by the stormy Weather in Languedoc on the 29th of September last, particularly at Lavaignac between Lunet and Pezenas, where it tore up by the Roots and destroyed a whole Wood of Olive-Trees, besides Mills, Houses, and Bridges, that were born away by the Floods at other Places.

London, November 2, 1723.

The General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the City of London will be held by Adjournment at the Guildhall on Friday next, at Nine of the Clock in the Forenoon, for administering the Oaths to the several Persons who are obliged to take them, according to the late Act of Parliament, of which all Persons concerned are to take Notice.

Navy-Office, Oct. 28, 1723.

These are to give Notice, That on Wednesday the 11th Day of December next, is the Morning, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy will be ready to treat with such Persons as are willing to undertake the serving His Majesty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, and Plymouth, with Ironmongers Wares on a standing Contract or Contracts, that they may attend with their Proposals at this Office the Time abovementioned.

The Managers at the Lottery-Office in Whitehall give Notice, That Certificates for all Tickets in the Lottery 1723, which have been entered at their said Office, to or at any time before the 31st Day of October 1723, inclusive, are ready, and will be delivered out at their said Office in Exchange for the said Tickets for Six working Days successively, beginning the 11th Day of November Instant, and ending the 16th of the same Month, from Nine till One in the Forenoon of each Day; during which Days of Delivery, all other Business whatsoever with which the said Office is charged, will be suspended. And whereas the said Managers have detected a Fraud practised in the selling, whilst the Lottery was drawing, Tickets called undrawn Tickets, which Fraud is as followeth, a Ticket No 27048 is sold, and was at the Time of sale an undrawn Ticket, but came up a Blank some Days after, then the 27048 is made a 27948, by turning the 0 into 9, and sold again, the real Number 27948 being at the Time of such Sale undrawn, but came up a Blank also two Days after. The said Managers have thought fit to notify this Affair, which is Felony by the Act, for the better Security of the publick Credit, and cautioning such who in times coming may deal in the way of purchasing undrawn Tickets.

6000 Tickets, at 4 l. 10s. each. 27000 l.

This Lottery begins Drawing on Thursday the 7th of November Instant, at their House in Winchester Street.

N. B. There is but Three Blanks to One Prize, and the lowest Prize worth near double the Money each Ticket now sells for. And in Regard every Benefit Ticket is en- titled to an Annuity for three Lives, it is the most advan- tageous Lottery to the Adventurers as has been made: By the State of the Company's Affairs lately delivered at a General Court; by the Committee of Inspection on Oath, and likewise the Account delivered on Oath by the Direc- tors, the Company's Rentals amounts to many Thousands per Ann more than the Sums now charged on their E- states; so that none need doubt the Security of these An- nuities. A Numerical Book of this Lottery will be kept by Thomas Allen, at his Office at the Union Coffee-house in Cornhill, where any Person may have their Tickets re- gistered, and an Account immediately sent of their Success either in Town or County, upon their paying 6 d. each Ticket to be registered, or 2 s. for each Prize. N. B. Tickets are bought and sold at the said Office, and in Exchange- Alley.

Lassellia; or, The Self Abandon'd. A N- vel. Written by Mrs. Eliza Haywood.

Love various Minds does variously inspire,
He sits in gentle Natures gentle Fire,
Like that of Incense on the Altars laid;
But raging Flames tempestuous Souls invade;
A Fire which ev'ry windy Passion blows,
With Pride it mounts, and with Revenge it glows! Drp.

The wonderful Elixir for the Palsy, fa- mous in most Parts of Europe, and now recommended by the very best Physicians in London, as the most infallible Medicine in the World for that Disease; for it absolutely cures the Palsy almost as a Miracle, be it ever so bad, universal, or of many Years standing, and that after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual, re- ducing those afflicted with it perfectly healthy, strong, and vigorous. It momentarily warms, comforts, and strengthens the enfeebled Nerves, and whole nervous System, revives the genuine Force and pristine Vigour of the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, fortifies and in- creases the animal Spirits, opens all Obstructions that hinder their free Egress to invigorate the weaken'd Parts, and immediately takes away all Numbness, Deadness, Shaking, or Trembling, to Admira- tion; quickly restoring the true and ready Use of the Limbs, and assuredly curing the Palsy, and all its Concomitant Symptoms, in a very short Time, as Thousands have experienced. All other Indi- positions of the Nerves it certainly cures, and is neither disagree- able to take, or occasions the least Trouble or Disorder. It is to be had only at Mrs. Bot's, a Bookseller, at the Cross Keys and Bible near the Roy. Exchange in Cornhill, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The most severe RHEUMATISM, and all Rheumatick Pains in the Limbs, &c. whether fixt or wandering most certainly cured, so as not to return again, by incomparable Chymical Drops which without the least Trouble or Disorder im- medi- ly frees the Patient from that cruel Disease in a most wonderful Manner; for they immediately restore a due and equal Circulation to the Fluids in the minutest Canals, by effectually attenuating and subdividing the fatal LENTOR, or Acid Matter that occasions all the Mischief, in so much that all Manner of Pain, tho' never so vio- lent, or of many Years standing, presently vanishes to the Admira- tion of all who have taken them, who could not believe it is the Power of Medicine to give such sudden and almost miracu- lous Ease, till happily convinced by their own Experience. Hundreds who had been miserable afflicted with the Rheumatism for many Years together, and after trying most other Remedies, distressed by being ever relieved, have been almost instantly cured by these excellent Drops, which were never so much as once known to fail. They are very agreeable to take, and for safety might be given to a sucking Infant without inconvenience. To be had at Mrs. Bot's Coffee-house, against the Angel and Street, behind the Royal rections.
